This sum is the principal of the trust fund left by Peter Cooper for the support of his family. Mr. Cooper's descendants and the amounts which they contribute to the union at their death are as follows:

Hewitt, $50,000; Erskine Hewitt, $50,000.

This addition to the endowment will bring the total given to the institution by the Cooper family up to $1,600,000, not including $500,000 given by Edward Cooper, Mrs. Sarah Amelia Hewitt and Abram S. Hewitt for remodeling the building. The building and apparatus are valued at $1,075,000.

SETTLEMENT AFFAIRS.

Return of Officer Reynolds With Very Favorable Reports.

C. B. Reynolds, executive officer of the Board of Health, has returned from Molokai. Answering questions about affairs at the Settlement, he incidentally corrected statements lately made by a correspondent of this paper.

Pipe laying is going on fast, especially considering that sick people chiefly constitute the labor, also that the work thus far done has been the hardest from being, much of it, up steep cliffs.

The most difficult part of the pipe laying is over. In two weeks more, with fine weather, Kalapapa will be getting its water supply fed from the new 8 inch main. This runs from the Waikoloa sources to a point close to the Baldwin Home at Kalawao. Thence 6 inch pipes will run to Kalapapa instead of the 4 inch ones now there. Altogether about 22,000 feet of new pipe will have been laid.

Taro planting also goes on satisfactorily. It is a boon to the people themselves. They had already got quite a lot of taro, which is much preferred to the outside supply, and at times when it was most needed.

A New Chinese Emperor. The Peking and Tientsin Times of the 18th ult., says it has reason to anticipate the proclamation by the Empress Dowager of a new Emperor, who will probably be completely her tool, leaving her in undiminished enjoyment of her power and position. "The quiet attitude and apparent indifference of the Foreign Representatives favors this movement."

The Sewerage System.

Mr. Edwards, supervising engineer for Mr. Hering, has taken a desk in the Public Works bureau. He has gone all over the ground of the projected sewerage system with Superintendent Rowell. Work will soon begin on construction.

The tugboat Iroquois is expected back from Hilo tomorrow.

The schooner Ka Mo came in from Hamakua with a load of sugar this morning.

The schooner Mokulele, laden with lumber and general merchandise for Molokai, was towed to sea by the Eleu this morning.

The Star of Bengal has hauled alongside the fishmarket wharf where she is now discharging her cargo of overheated coal.

The Diamond Head has hauled alongside Wilder's wharf to discharge her bay. The live stock was discharged yesterday.

After discharging her live stock at Wilder's wharf, the Irmgard hauled over to Brewer's wharf where she is now discharging her cargo of general merchandise.

The Jeannette sailed for the north this morning. The captain was very much disappointed that he did not get a whale or two out of the school that was outside yesterday.

The Kilohana arrived from Kauai ports last night. Captain Thompson reports the Keahou at Waiuea and 62,000 bags of sugar left on the Garden Isle. The Kilohana is putting her sugar into the Mary E Foster.

Scindia Sails.

The Scindia sailed for San Francisco this morning. The officers do not seem to know what will become of them next. However, it is generally believed that they will be transferred to the Ranger and that vessel will return here from time to time. The departure from Honolulu comes as an unwelcome event to most of the officers who have, during their stay, become very much attached to the place.

Stubborn Sailor.

Just before the Golden Gate sailed yesterday, one of the sailors was taken aboard by police officers. The fellow refused to stay aboard ship and signified his intention to get away before the vessel sailed. At a word from Officer Kaili, the irons were put on the man's wrists and he was taken below, there to remain until the ship got far out to sea.
